WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Brechine, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty to expreſs our moſt ſincere Feelings on the late atrocious Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, upon hearing of which our Minds were ſtrongly impreſſed and deeply affected with Aſtoniſhment and Horror. At ſame Time we beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt humble and affectionate Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the Danger which threatened your ſacred Life; and we moſt ſincerely pray that the Almighty, who has ſo recently interpoſed his protecting Arm for the Preſervation of a Life ſo juſtly dear to your dutiful and loyal Subjects, will long continue to guard and watch over the ſame, for the Defence of your Subjects, our Laws and Liberties, both Civil and Eccleſiaſtical, and for the Happineſs and Bleſſing of your Royal and illuſtrious Family.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Maſters, and Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Saint Andrew, in Wells.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Maſters, and Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Saint Andrew, in Wells, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the Offer of our ſincere Congratulations on your late happy Eſcape from a deſperate and daring Attempt againſt your invaluable Life.

When we mark in the ſtrongeſt Terms our utmoſt Abhorrence and Indignation at ſuch baſe and treaſonable Deſigns, we cannot but expreſs our Gratitude for the Divine Interpoſition repeatedly manifeſted in your Favor by averting a Blow which might have proved ſo calamitous to the Britiſh Empire.

We implore the Almighty to continue to be your beſt Safeguard and Defence that you may long live to reign in the Hearts as well as over the Perſons of all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting.

John Brock, Mayor.

[Preſented by Charles Taylor, Member for Wells.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter, in Exeter, beg Leave to lay our humble Addreſs at the Foot of your Throne.

Impreſſed with every Sentiment of Duty and Affection which can attach grateful Subjects to the Father of his People, we ſhudder at the Recollection of the late horrid Attempt upon the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty; at the ſame Time we adore with unfeigned Thankfulneſs the Interpoſition of that Almighty Hand, which, in defeating the deſperate Deſigns of this Treaſon has vouchſafed to add another ſignal Inſtance of Mercy and Protection to our Church and Nation.

In this Expreſſion of our Duty and Allegiance we are confident that we ſpeak the Senſe of every Lover of our Country, but not to forget our peculiar Character as Miniſters of the Goſpel of Peace and Order, we preſume to aſſure your Majeſty as well of our united Endeavours, as of our individual Exertions in our reſpective Stations, to promote both by Precept and Example, thoſe Principles and Sentiments of Loyalty which are inſeparable from a due Regard for the public Welfare, praying always with all Perſeverance for the Continuance of a Life rendered invaluable to your Subjects by all the Virtues which can make a Throne illuſtrious or a People happy.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-ninth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Exeter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Oxford, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chriſt, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Oxford, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty, in order to expreſs in common with the Reſt of our fellow Subjects, our Abhorrence of the late treaſonable Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon, and our moſt fervent and dutiful Congratulations to your Majeſty on your providential Deliverance from the imminent Danger to which your Life was expoſed.

We cannot but lament that any ſingle Perſon ſhould have been found capable of harbouring in his Heart ſo execrable a Deſign, at a Time when your Majeſty's Subjects of all Ranks are attached to your Perſon, and devoted to your Service, not only by the ſacred Ties of Allegiance and Duty, but by the ſincereſt Love and Reverence; and at a Time alſo when your Majeſty's public and private Conduct has been a Bulwark not only to this Kingdom but to all Europe, and one of the greateſt Means under Providence of ſtemming that Torrent of Iniquity which threatened to overwhelm all Religion and Government, and every religious and civil Eſtabliſhment in one general Ruin.

We are duly ſenſible of the merciful Interpoſition of Providence in fruſtrating this atrocious Deſign; we truſt that the ſame good Providence will long watch over and continue as a Bleſſing to this Country, your Majeſty's valuable Life, for the Preſervation of which we ſhall not fail to offer up, continually, our ſincere and earneſt Prayers.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Oxford.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter, with Hearts full of Gratitude to Almighty God, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our warmeſt Congratulations on the providential Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life from the late atrocious and treaſonable Attempt on your ſacred Perſon.

Convinced by long Experience of your Majeſty's uniform Adherence to the true Principles of our excellent Conſtitution, we conſider it as an eſſential and indiſpenſable Part of our Duty to impreſs upon the Minds of thoſe who are committed to our Charge a proper Senſe of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government, the firm Support of which muſt be regarded as the beſt Security of our religious and civil Liberties.

Actuated by theſe Principles of Loyalty, we cannot fail to offer up our fervent Prayers to God that your Majeſty's Life, and the Tranquillity of your Kingdoms, may be no more endangered by the deſperate Attempts of Traitors and Aſſaſſins; that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a grateful and happy People; and that your Majeſty's many and illuſtrious Virtues, both public and private, may deſcend with the Crown to your lateſt Poſterity.

[Preſented by the Reverend Mr. Wilſon, Prebendary of Glouceſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of Rocheſter, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Rocheſter, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe, crave Permiſſion to lay with all Humility at your Royal Feet our warmeſt Expreſſions of cordial Congratulation upon your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the traitorous Attempt of a vile Aſſaſſin. Partaking with our fellow Subjects in the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's mild and upright Government, looking up to your Majeſty not only as the Father of your People, but as, under God, by the Steadineſs of your Councils and the Terror of your Arms, the great Defender of the Liberties of Europe, and the principal Stay and Support of all ſocial Order; when we ſee (with Horror) the Arm of the Traitor raiſed againſt your ſacred Perſon, we conſider, not only our own happy Conſtitution, and our eſtabliſhed Church, but the very Exiſtence of civil Society in all Parts of the World, and the Chriſtian Religion generally, as the Objects of the meditated Blow. Proportioned to our Eſtimation of the Extent and Magnitude of the intended Miſchief is our Gratitude to God, by whoſe merciful Interpoſition it hath been averted. We will never ceaſe to offer up our fervent Prayers, that God would vouchſafe to continue his gracious Care and Protection of your Majeſty's Perſon, and that the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms may remain in your illuſtrious and royal Houſe to the lateſt Generations.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Rocheſter, the Reverend Dr. Willis, the Reverend Dr. Barnaby.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape from a wicked and treaſonable Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

We feel the utmoſt Aſtoniſhment and Horror at ſuch an Act againſt a Life ſo juſtly endeared to your Majeſty's Subjects by the many Bleſſings they have derived from your juſt and mild Government, and your paternal Care and Anxiety for their Welfare.

We acknowlege the Providence of God in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life as one of the moſt ſignal Bleſſings beſtowed on this highly favoured Country, and ſhall not ceaſe to pray that your Majeſty may continue to enjoy that gracious Pro-tion, and long reign over a happy and grateful People.

Signed by the Deſire of the Meeting,
Theophilus Biddulph, Sheriff.

[Preſented by Sir John Mordaunt and Sir George Shuckburgh Evelyn.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Saint Aſaph.

A Sovereign endeared to his Subjects of every Rank and Deſcription, by an unremitted Attention to their Happineſs and beſt Intereſts, reſpected by all Nations for the exalted Virtues with which he hath filled and adorned for a long Series of Years the high Station he holds, ſhould ſeem to be ſecured, if Security could in any Situation be the Lot of Humanity, from many of the Dangers that ſurround other Men, from thoſe more eſpecially that originate in wilful Violence and Malice. Yet ſuch unhappily is the Corruption of our Nature that there may be Enemies even to one who is the Friend of all. And in Times like the preſent, when open War hath been declared againſt all that is good and great and amiable in Society, the beſt and moſt Virtuous are for that very Reaſon marked for Deſtruction; in ſuch Circumſtances the late atrocious Attack upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon may be the leſs wondered at, but it muſt excite the deepeſt Abhorrence in the Minds of your faithful People. The Miniſters of Religion cannot but conſider your happy Eſcape as a freſh Inſtance of that Superintending Providence which hath repeatedly protected your Life from the moſt imminent Danger. We therefore, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph, under theſe Impreſſions approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Aſſurance of our unfeigned Congratulations, and humbly implore from Heaven a Continuance of that Divine Protection which hath hitherto ſecured unto us under your auſpicious Government the Enjoyment of thoſe unparalleled Bleſſings which diſtinguiſh this Country above every other Nation upon Earth.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Oxford, for the Biſhop of St. Aſaph.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

The cool and dignified Courage which ſo eminently and ſo honorably diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty's Conduct in the Moment of Danger and general Alarm, by which many Lives of your Majeſty's Subjects were evidently preſerved, claim equally our Admiration and our Gratitude.

We thankfully acknowledge the ſignal Interpoſition of Divine Providence diſplayed in our Behalf by the Preſervation of our juſtly beloved and revered Sovereign, and we offer up our fervent Prayers that your Majeſty may long and proſperouſly reign over a faithful, free, and united People.

John Chardin Muſgrave, Sheriff.

[Preſented by Sir John Chardin Muſgrave, Sheriff of the County of Cumberland, attended by Sir Henry Fletcher, Bart. Member for the County, Sir John Briſco, Bart. Sir Michael le Fleming, Bart.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Cheſter, beg Leave to offer our moſt humble and ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty on your late providential Eſcape from the imminent Danger to which your Life has been expoſed.

Senſible of the Benefits we have long enjoyed under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, and with the higheſt Veneration and Reſpect for the Virtues which ſo eminently adorn your Character, we feel ourſelves attached to your Majeſty by every Conſideration that can endear a Prince to his People; and we moſt ſincerely hope and truſt that the Almighty Being, who has ſo ſignally interpoſed in Favor of theſe Kingdoms, by preſerving to them your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life, will ſtill guard and defend you from every Attempt either of ſecret Treachery or open Violence, and that your Majeſty may long continue to reign in the Hearts and Affections of a happy and loyal People.

Signed by order of a General Meeting of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cheſter held at Northwich in the ſaid County, on Monday the Second Day of June One thouſand eight hundred.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, with the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty and Affection, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty their ſincere Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape from the Hand of an atrocious Aſſaſſin. Senſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Government, they rejoice in the Preſervation of your Life, a Life which will continue to them the ineſtimable Bleſſings of a free and happy Conſtitution.

They moſt earneſtly implore the Great Ruler of the Univerſe to preſerve to them the beſt of Monarchs, the Guardian of their civil and religious Rights, the Father of his People.

Signed at the Requeſt, and in the Name of the Meeting.

With the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude to the Almighty we trace in our Annals, as a Nation, many and ſignal Inſtances of his Divine Interpoſition. On this memorable day our Anceſtors were delivered from the Miſeries of Republican Anarchy, and the Tyranny of an Uſurper, by the Reſtoration of their lawful Sovereign; and we, their Deſcendants, now meet to expreſs our Gratitude to the ſame gracious Power for preſerving to us a Sovereign, whoſe Life has been devoted to a conſcientious Diſcharge of all the Duties of the Monarchy, and to an unremitting Attention to the Welfare of his People.

Signed at the Requeſt, and on the Behalf of the Meeting, the Twenty-ninth Day of May one thouſand eight hundred, by George Adam Aſkew, Sheriff and Chairman.

[Preſented by Mr. Grey.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt humble and ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the imminent Danger to which your Majeſty's Life has lately been expoſed.

We fully participate in thoſe Feelings which this awful Event has excited in the Breaſt of every loyal Subject, and with Gratitude we acknowledge the merciful Interpoſition of the Divine Being in preſerving to theſe Realms a Sovereign who has ever made our Happineſs the Rule of his Conduct, and whoſe whole Life has afforded to his Subjects an Example of every Virtue.

Truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy, we avail ourſelves of this Opportunity to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of all traitorous Deſigns againſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and with Hearts full of Loyalty we ceaſe not to pray the Almighty for the long Preſervation of your Majeſty's life ſo juſtly dear to your People.

Signed in Behalf of the County.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, deſire to offer to your Majeſty, our warmeſt and dutiful Congratulations on your Providential Eſcape from the execrable Attempt lately made on your Royal Perſon.

We acknowledge with humble Thankfulneſs the Goodneſs of Almighty God who has been pleaſed to prolong a Life ſo juſtly endeared to us by the Senſe which we deeply feel of our Happineſs under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government, and of the Benevolence and Virtues that have placed your Throne in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects.

Our excellent Conſtitution points out to us the Duties which we owe for the Protection of our Sovereign, whom we will defend with our Lives, but our Sentiments of perſonal Affection, Reſpect, and Gratitude encreaſe thoſe Obligations, and the anxious Fervour of our Prayers for your Majeſty's Security and Happineſs. M. D. Manſel, Sheriff.

[Preſented by M. D. Manſel, High Sheriff.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, truly anxious at all Times to acknowledge the Mercies of Divine Providence, and to teſtify our unfeigned and firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and to the Conſtitution of your Kingdoms, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere and affectionate Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the Danger which lately threatened your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Life.

We feel too ſenſibly the Bleſſings we have ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and we reverence too ſincerely your Majeſty's public and private Virtues, and the paternal Care you have ever manifeſted for your People's Welfare, not to offer up our unceaſing Prayers to Almighty God to watch over and preſerve through a long Series of Years a Life ſo juſtly dear to your illuſtrious Family and to the Nation at large.

Edward Bouverie, Sheriff, at the Requeſt, and in the Name of the County.

[Preſented by the Sheriff, Mr. Horton, Lord G. H. Cavendiſh, E. M. Mundy.]

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, moſt humbly approach your Majeſty's Throne with our heartfelt Expreſſions of Abhorrence at the late moſt execrable Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Life, with warmeſt Congratulations on the Failure of ſo diabolical a Treaſon, and the moſt dutiful Profeſſions of loyal Attachment to your Perſon.

We have no Language to expreſs our Aſtoniſhment that even amongſt the Millions over whom your Majeſty Reigns, and in ſuch evil Times, there ſhould yet one Heart be found ſo vile as to plan, or one Arm ſo nerved as to attempt to execute the black Deſign of Violence againſt the Perſon of a Monarch even more beloved by a grateful People than the moſt illuſtrious of his Predeceſſors.

We acknowledge the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, and, though in the contagious Peſtilence of Principles which are alike ſubverſive of all true Religion and good Government, the Machinations of Treaſon may work amongſt a deſperate and profligate few, we confeſs that we owe it to your Majeſty's Firmneſs and Wiſdom that this Country has preſented an impregnable Barrier againſt the deteſted Principles of Anarchy, and that we preſerve our Liberties, our Laws, our ſocial Bleſſings, and domeſtic Comforts inviolate amidſt the awful Scene of Bloodſhed and Deſolation with which neighbouring Nations are overrun.

More eſpecially do we entreat your Majeſty to accept the Tribute of our higheſt Admiration as well as our warmeſt Gratitude for the Support which the Cauſe of our holy Religion, that great Cement of ſocial Order, has received in your Majeſty's moſt pious and virtuous Example.

Under the deepeſt Senſe therefore of Duty and Attachment we earneſtly implore the Almighty Governor of the Univerſe, (and our Hope derives Strength and Confidence from your Majeſty's Virtues,) that it will pleaſe Him to guard and preſerve, by his eſpecial Providence, a Life ſo ineſtimably dear and precious to the Subjects of theſe Realms.

Signed at the unanimous Deſire of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, in a General Meeting aſſembled at Stow-Market, the Thirtieth of May One thouſand eight hundred, by

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

VIEWING with indignant Horror the late atrocious Outrage againſt the Life of our illuſtrious King, we, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, moſt unfeignedly congratulate your Majeſty, your beloved Family, and the Kingdom at large, on that ſignal Inſtance of Divine Goodneſs which ſhielded from Injury your ſacred Perſon, and inſpired ſo much Firmneſs and Magnanimity in the Moment of Danger.

Exalted, as your majeſty is, in the Practice of cardinal Virtues, which, while they add Luſtre to a Crown, furniſh the brighteſt Examples in private Life; and diſtinguiſhed, as your Reign uniformly has been, by your anxious Attention to the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, we cannot on this Occaſion withhold the pureſt Dictates of our Hearts, in declaring the unalterable Veneration we feel for your Perſon and Government.

In humble Thankfulneſs for Benefits ſo ineſtimable may we earneſtly endeavor to merit their Continuance, and may the gracious Providence of God long preſerve to your Majeſty the Bleſſings of uninterrupted Health and Safety for the continued Proſperity of theſe Realms.

James Ackers, Sheriff.

[Preſented by the High Sheriff, attended by the County Members.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Warden, Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of Louth in the County of Lincoln, firmly attached to your Crown and Government, beg leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances, that the recent atrocious and treaſonable Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon has excited in us the greateſt Horror and Indignation, and to preſent our humble and ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from Alarm, and imminent Danger. We acknowledge with the warmeſt Thankfulneſs the Interpoſition of a merciful Providence in diverting the Arm of the Aſſaſſin, and in our daily Supplications fervently intreat the Almighty Diſpoſer of Events to defend your Majeſty from the malicious Devices of your Enemies, to confer upon your Majeſty every perſonal, domeſtic, and national Bleſſing, and long to continue your Majeſty the Diſpenſer of Happineſs to your Subjects; of the deareſt Intereſts of Europe, the Guardian and Protector, and of Virtue, Literature, and Religion, the Friend, the Patron, and the Example.

We cannot conclude without expreſſing our Admiration of that cool Courage, that marked Intrepidity, and that dignified Compoſure, which ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty's Conduct in this as it has done in every other Hour of Trial, and to which magnanimous Conduct in this Inſtance many valuable Lives moſt certainly owe their Preſervation.

[Preſented by Benjamin Waddington, Eſq; Sheriff, attended by the Marquis of Worceſter, Lieutenant-General Rooke, and Charles Morgan, Eſq; Repreſentatives for the County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

DEIGN, moſt gracious Sovereign, to accept our ſincere and cordial Congratulation on the ſignal Eſcape which your Majeſty has, under the Divine Protection, recently experienced from a moſt daring and atrocious Attempt, which we cannot contemplate without Horror and Indignation.

May the ſame Providence watch over and long preſerve a Life ſo juſtly dear to the Nation, averting any Violence or Inſult from your Royal Perſon, and diſappointing any latent Purpoſe for ſubverting your Majeſty's Government; and when, according to the Courſe of Nature, your Majeſty ſhall be called away from us, full of Years, and full of Honours, may there never be wanting Deſcendants from your Majeſty's illuſtrious Family, inheriting both the Crown and the Virtues of their auguſt Progenitors.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from the Hand of a deſperate Aſſaſſin, and humbly implore the Divine Being to defend your Majeſty's Perſon from every Species of Violence, and preſerve in Safety to a very remote Period a Life ſo eſſential to the Welfare of your Dominions at large, and to the individual Happineſs of your affectionate and loyal Subjects.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly:

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal, and moſt faithful Subjects, the Bailiff, Jurats, Town Clerk, Corporation, Burgeſſes, and Gentlemen, Inhabitants of the ancient Borough, Town, and Port of Seaford, in Common Hall convened, with moſt profound Humility earneſtly ſolicit to approach your Majeſty's Royal Throne, to convey our moſt deteſted Abhorrence of the moſt atrocious and moſt horrid Deſign againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred

Perſon and Dignity, and with unfeigned Thanks to the King of Kings; we moſt religiouſly congratulate your Majeſty on this providential Eſcape from this reiterated diabolical Attempt of moſt vile, daring, abandoned Aſſaſſins; a Life ſo important to the Happineſs and Proſperity of a People, ſo glorioufly ineſtimable, ſo ſacred, and a Sovereign ſo virtuous and wiſe, thus happily preſerved to us; we unite in moſt heartfelt Thankſgivings, and pray that the Almighty God of Heaven and Earth may long, very long, be pleaſed to continue to us his Bleſſing, by preſerving your Majeſty in uninterrupted Health and Proſperity, ſo eſſentially conducive to the Felicity and Peace of not only theſe Realms but all your Majeſty's Dominions.

Thomas Chambers, Bailiff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bodmin, humbly preſume to join, moſt zealouſly, the Voice of Congratulation, ſo generally excited throughout your Majeſty's Realms, on the Safety of your Life from imminent Danger.

We ſenſibly feel the peculiar Bleſſings we derive from your Majeſty's exemplary Government, and truſt in the Divine Goodneſs already manifeſted in the extraordinary Preſervation of it, that it may be graciouſly continued to us to the very lateſt Period.

Bodmin, June 6, 1800.

Downing-Street, June 13, 1800.

HIS Majeſty having reviewed the Yeomanry Cavalry and Volunteer Corps of the County of Herts, at Hatfield, the Seat of the Marquis of Saliſbury, on the 13th Inſtant, the following Letter was, by His Majeſty's Command, written to his Lordſhip on the Occaſion, by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Downing-Street, 13*th June*, 1800.

MY LORD,

I AM commanded by His Majeſty to convey to your Lordſhip, and through you to the Militia and Volunteer Corps of the County of Herts, the Aſſurance of His Majeſty's perfect Satisfaction at the good Order, Regularity, and Military Appearance they have this Day exhibited in His Majeſty's Preſence. The Zeal and Exertions which alone could enable the Officers and Men to attain theſe Qualities in ſo eminent a Degree, are Proofs that they juſtly eſtimate the Value of thoſe Bleſſings which the Volunteer Eſtabliſhments are ſo peculiarly calculated to ſecure, under the Divine Protection. Their Loyalty and Ardor, called forth by the Wiſdom of Parliament, enabled His Majeſty at an eventful Criſis to provide for the Preſervation of all that is dear to Britons, affording at the ſame Time the ſureſt Pledge, that whatever future Trials may be reſerved for the Liberties and Conſtitution of this Kingdom, thus guarded by the public Spirit of the People, theſe envied Sources of our Proſperity and Happineſs will paſs unimpaired to our Poſterity. Deeply impreſſed as His Majeſty is with the Conſtitutional Importance of this invaluable Inſtitution, it has, in his Eſtimation, the further Excellence of having greatly, and he truſts permanently, encreaſed our Means of Defence and internal Tranquillity, without drawing from their uſeful and productive Labours that Part of his Subjects whoſe daily Induſtry and habitual Preſence with their Families are moſt neceſſary to their Comfort and Support; as this Claſs, in His Majeſty's general Anxiety for the Welfare of all, muſt ever form a principal Object of his paternal Soliciſude.

I have in further Command from His Majeſty to expreſs to your Lordſhip the Senſe His Majeſty entertains of your peculiar Attention to render the Preſence of the Royal Family at Hatfield equally gratifying and commodious; nor could His Majeſty contemplate the ſplendid and hoſpitable Reception afforded by your Lordſhip to ſo large and ſo reſpectable a Proportion of the Inhabitants of the County over which you preſide, without conſidering it as highly honorable to that Spirit of Liberality and Munificence which has ever diſtinguiſhed the antient Nobility of this Kingdom.

The Manifeſtations of Loyalty and perſonal Attachment ſo warmly diſplayed by all preſent on the Occaſion, added to the daily Proofs His Majeſty receives of the Affection of his faithful People, are to him a Source of the moſt pleaſing Reflections, as they afford the beſt Evidence that his unremitting Endeavours to promote general Happineſs, have ſecured to His Majeſty a ſteady and permanent Intereſt in the Hearts of all his Subjects.

I have the Honor to be, my Lord, your Lordſhip's moſt obedient humble Servant,
(Signed) HENRY DUNDAS.

Copy of a Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c. to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated off Uſhant, the 10*th Inſtant.*

SIR,

I Encloſe for the Information of the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, a Report of the Tranſactions of the Squadron under the Orders of Sir Edward Pellew ſince his Departure, and I beg Leave to call their Lordſhips' Attention to the gallant Conduct of Lieutenant Pinfold, of the Impetueux, in boarding and carrying L'Inſolente, Corvette, in the Morbihan.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

ST. VINCENT.

Impetueux, at Quiberon, 7th June, 1800.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordſhip of my Arrival at this Anchorage with the Ships under my Orders, on the 2d Inſtant, and in my Way down collected the Thames. On the 3d I was joined by the Amethyſt, Amelia, and the Winchelſea Troop Ship. On the 4th the Thames, Cynthia, and ſmall Force, attacked the South-Weſt End of Quiberon, ſilenced the Forts which were afterwards deſtroyed by a Party of Troops landed under Major Ramſey; ſeveral Veſſels were brought off and ſome ſcuttled, the only Loſs Two killed and One wounded on board the Cynthia. On the 5th the Ramillies joined with the Diadem, Inconſtant, and Viper Cutter, and on the 6th, before Day, we ſucceeded in an Attempt upon the Morbihan, from whence were taken Two Brigs, Two Sloops, Two Gun Veſſels, and about One Hundred Priſoners; a Corvette Brig L'Inſolente of Eighteen Guns was burnt with ſeveral other ſmall Craft, the Guns all deſtroyed, and the Magazine blown up.

Three Hundred of the Queen's Regiment were employed upon this Service; and the Gun Launches and Naval Force were under the Direction of Lieutenant John Pilfold of this Ship, who boarded the Corvette with much Bravery, and performed the Service with much Judgment and Officer-like Conduct; the Loſs was only One Seaman killed in his Boat, and ſome ſlight Hurts.

A Lieutenant of the Thames, and ſome few Men in different Ships have been wounded ſince here, but I am happy to ſay all the Coaſting Trade between the different Ports has been moſt completely ſtopped, with the Proviſions and Wine for the Breſt Fleet.

I have the Honor to remain, My Lord, &c. &c. &c.

EDWARD PELLEW.

Admiral the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. &c. &c. &c.
